4PM TO 6.30PM

How can we flip the script on education policy to centre wellbeing in schools?

This event is an opportunity for educators and researchers to come together to explore the road less travelled when it comes to wellbeing in schools. We will share new research findings and invite educators to share their own expertise and examples of good practice through small group discussions.

Keynote speaker: Dr Sarah Bell, University of Bristol, who will talk about the ‘Behaviour in Schools’ (BISS) study click here

Other topics:

- youth-led advocacy for positive peer relationships
- learners’ sense of belonging in school

- preventative safeguarding

We hope participants leave with inspiration, new tools, new thinking and a broader network to enrich their work.
